++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry, mostly sunny and very warm through this period.

Today:
Some low cloud and fog patches linger for a time in the morning, as well as the occasional bit of drizzle. However, this soon clears to give a sunny afternoon. Feeling very warm, especially in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Tonight:
Overnight it looks to be dry with plenty of clear skies. It is possible the odd isolated fog patch could also form. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Friday:
A dry day, with plenty of sunshine developing after any early fog patches clear. Feeling very warm in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 26 deg C (79 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry with plenty of sunshine over the weekend, becoming hot by day in the south. Staying warm into Monday as some cloud returns, and with it the odd heavy shower.
